Winter Conference
2/10/2012

50¢ entry fee

On 11x14 white, gray
or black board

- ◆ An environmental portrait is an image that tells the viewer something about the subject, either through other elements within the image or as a psychological study. (See the work of Arnold Newman, Annie Liebovitz and Mark Seliger.)
- ◆ All images must have been taken or created after Aug. 1, 2011. Work entered in any previous ATPI contest is not eligible for this contest.
- ◆ Prints must be matted or mounted on 11x14 white, gray or black mount board. On the back of the entry include the student's name, the instructor's name, school name, and school address. A 50¢ per entry fee should accompany the package of entries or be prepaid.
- ◆ All student entries must have been created by the student in the photograph. All instructor entries must have been created by the instructor in the photograph.
- ◆ Entries must be hand-delivered to the ATPI Winter Conference registration desk by 5 p.m. on Friday, February 10 in the Fine Arts Building at The University of Texas in Arlington. All entries from the same school should be delivered in one package.
