

Famous Photogs to Know and Report On

Ansel Adams - Yosemite Nat'l Park, "Moonrise, Hernandez, N.M."

Eddie Adams - photojournalist, shooting in the street of a suspected Vietcong - Pulitzer Prize

Diane Arbus - life in NYC, retarded /asylum photos '69-'71 - death at age 48, 'boy in Central Park'

Eugene Atget - old time Paris

Richard Avedon - modern genius in fashion and art photography and portraits

Dimitri Baltermants - Russian war photjournaist, "Kerch, Crimea"

Oskar Barnack - European master - Leica founder (Leica = Leitz [lenses] + camera)

Candace Bergen - Murphy Brown star was a photog B4 acting - played Margaret Bourke-White

Margaret Bourke-White - photojournalism, 51 LIFE covers, WWII's conclusion

Mathew Brady - Civil War of the U.S., daguerotypes, "President Lincoln" from the $5 bill

Bill Brandt - modern, variety, Best in Britain

Brassai - romance in Paris

Wynn Bullock - nude child in the forest

Cornell Capa - Bolshoi School, Moscow

Robert Capa - "Death of a Loyalist Soldier" he died in 1954 by a landmine

Henri Cartier-Bresson - French master of the 1900s

Imogene Cunningham

Edward S. Curtis - best known photog of Indians in the American west

Louis Jacques Mande Daguerre - first reproducible image, Daguerrotype

Robert Doisneau - '40s and '50s Paris

David Doubilet - underwater photography - National Geographic

David Douglas Duncan - Vietnam, photojournalism

Harold Edgerton - strobe photos, "Milk Drop"

Alfred Eisenstaedt - general

Bill Epperidge - RF Kennedy's assassination

Elliott Erwitt - the most * dog photographer, LIFE, FSA (?)

Walker Evans - 1930's era, FSA cohort of Dorothea Lange

Arthur Fellig ("Weegee") - "ambulance chaser" photojournalist

Alexander Gardner - Civil War and Far West

Ernst Haas

Lewis Hine - children working at the turn of the century - changed child labor laws - "Steamfitter"

Horst P. Horst (yes) - fashion in the '50s and later - "Mainbocher's Pink Satin Corset"

William Henry Jackson - Far West

Robert Jackson - "The Murder of Lee Harevy Oswald"

Yosuf Karsh - Europe's best portrait photographer, "Winston Churchill"

Andre Kertesz

Dorothea Lange - Dust Bowl, Depression, '30s - "Migrant Mother"

Annie Liebovitz - current portrait genius, actors and musicians

Linda McCartney (only on her photography) - portraits

Robert Maplethorpe - flowers, portraits, nudes, AIDS

Gjon Mili - LIFE - "Picasso" (w/ the centaur drawing)

Samuel F.B. Morse - chemistry and techniques

David Muench and Mark Muench - outstanding outdoor shots

Scott Mutter - the "new" Jerry Uelsmann, 'man at escalator w/ ocean waves'

Eadweard Muybridge - multiple single frame images, horse w/ all hooves off the ground

James Nachtway - newest war photojournalist

Nadar

Helmut Newton - fashion, some nudity

Beaumont Newhall - photo historian

Arnold Newman - Adam's era - "Georgia O'Keefe at Ghost Ranch" (profile against empty canvas)

Joseph Nicephore Niepce - first permanent image

Lennart Nilsson - inside the human body - "Human Fetus at 3 months"

Timothy O'Sullivan - Civil War and Far West

Gordon Parks - multi-talented, "Renaissance Man", genius, "Flavio" in Rio, "American Gothic"

Eliot Porter - flowers, New England - the bulk of his work is in Ft Worth's Kimbell

Man Ray - unusual images called Rayographs, Rayograms (photograms), "Tears"

Herb Ritts - best male photg at Vanity Fair, portraitist, "Madonna""(possibly)

Sebastiao Salgado - one of the best new photojournalists "Serra Palada Goldmine, Para Brazil"

Ben Shawn - FSA, also artist

Sam Shere - "Hindenburg '37" (explosion of the Hindenburg blimp)

Sandy Skoglund - "Goldfish Revenge"

W. Eugene Smith - photojournalism

Lord Snowden (only on his photography)

Edward Steichen - general, "Rodin - Le Penseur"

Alfred Steiglitz - late 18800s and early 1900s, married Georgia O'Keefe, top 5 American Photogs

Paul Strand

William Henry Fox Talbot - calotypes a.k.a. Talbotypes

Jerry Uelsmann - bizarre and beautiful images from nature, multiple images, “Floating Tree”

Nick Ut - Vietnam War photog, “Children Fleeing Napalm ‘72”

Andy Warhol - artist first, “Self-Portrait II”

Carlton Watkins - turn of the century, master technician

Bruce Weber - fashion

Brett Weston - nature

Edward Weston - nature

Minor White - general

James van der Zee - Harlem's photographer at the turn of the century