

“Creative title goes here”

***For Photo Club Members the darkroom will be open on alternating Tuesdays and Wednesdays every other week after school until 5:00 PM. This will give you an opportunity to work on assignments or explore your own photographic interests. Stations will be filled on a first-come-first-serve basis.

***As usual this list is subject to change so listen carefully to instructions and keep up with this sheet.

Two Looking Reports

(grade weight of 1)

We will continue Looking Reports this semester. They will be due on your assigned day during class and if you are absent it is your responsibility to turn in the assignment the day you return. No late reports will be accepted. We will not be doing looking reports the week of January 15th or February 12th so plan ahead.

Photo Law Quiz

You can't run from it

(grade weight of 1)

We will be taking a closer look at the rules governing photography. What can you shoot and what can't you shoot? This will involve some group work and a lot of class discussion.

Photo Ethics Quiz

(grade weight of 1)

Following our unit on Photo Law we will be taking a closer look at Photo Ethics. Now that you know what you can and can't shoot the questions are should you shoot it at all and what are the consequences of shooting or publishing the photo? This will also involve some group work and a lot of class discussion.

Henri Cartier-Bresson Essay & Questions

(grade weight of 1)

Mark Seliger Essay & Questions

(grade weight of 1)

Picture Quiz

(grade weight of 1)

There will be a tray of slides available for review. You will need to know who the photographers are of these famous images.

Role Model Photos & Essay

(grade weight of 2 & 1)

Choose someone you admire and show us why they are your role model. You cannot do an essay on another student. Type a 1.5 page (or write a 3 page) essay on why they are your role model. Papers must be double spaced, have 1 inch margins, be of a 10-12 type size in a palatino-ish type font. Follow and photograph them in their environment doing what they normally do and turn in four full frame 8x10 prints. Hints: Shooting more than one roll will give you more images to choose from. Select someone interesting and show them in an interesting way.

Free Assignment

(grade weight 2)

Turn in two 8x10's of something creative and school appropriate.
