

Name _____ Period _____

Questions Chapter 16: The History of Photography

Upton and London Photography pp. 348-364

1. List 2 important portrait photographers of the 19th century.
2. A _____ was a small portrait that people collected in albums.
3. Whose cards would you collect in your typical album?
4. How did people moving west in the United States use photographs?
5. Why was the East such a popular theme in early travel photography?
6. List 2 photographers who accompanied government sponsored expeditions West.
7. Which two national parks were created because of the photographs made during expeditions West?
8. What was the first war to be photographed? The year?
9. How did the photographs of the Civil War differ from those of the Crimean War?
10. What photographer began the idea of sending teams to photograph the Civil War?

11. Photography that is used as a tool for social change is known as _____ photography.
12. Which two photographers used photography to bring about social change?
13. What type of people did August Sanders document?
14. The _____ used photographs to document the Great Depression of the 1930s.
15. Were the photographs of the Depression used to support the government programs or to discredit government programs?
16. List four of the Depression Era documentary photographers.
17. Did news photographs of the 19th century have to be altered in any way before press? If so how?
18. What process of the 1880s allowed type and photographs to be printed together?
19. Define photo essay.
20. When was the photo essay technique popular? What publications used this format?