

Pinhole Questionnaire

Answer in Complete Sentences

1. How is the focal length determined?
2. What is the focal length of your camera?
3. What, if any, modifications were necessary to your camera?
4. How would you correct A negative that is too dark, overexposed? Would you add time or subtract time?
5. Is the image on your negative different from the way you viewed the scene when you made the photograph? (other than being a negative)
6. Was your camera successful? If so why? If not why not?

Label the camera parts using the 8 basic parts of the camera.

10. List in order the chemicals and time for development of prints.