50¢ entry fee for ATPI members

Entrants do not have to attend the conference, but at least one person from the school must register

- ◆ An environmental portrait is an image that tells the viewer something about the subject, either through other elements within the image or as a psychological study. (See the work of Arnold Newman, Annie Liebovitz and Mark Seliger.)
- ◆ All images must have been taken or created after Aug. 1, 2017. Work entered in any previous ATPI contest is not eligible for this contest.
- ◆ Instructions for preparing images can be found at www.atpi.org/submission. Entries must contain proper metadata and be uploaded to contest.atpi.org by 6 pm on Wednesday, Feb 21, 2018.
- ◆ All student entries must have been created by the student in the photograph. All instructor entries must have been created by the instructor in the photograph.
- ◆ A 50¢ per entry fee for ATPI members should be brought to the convention with a copy of the fees form from the site. Non-members pay $1 per entry.
- ◆ Schools must have at least one person registered for the conference to enter this contest.
